

VACATIONING AT LAUGHARNE PARK

Laugharne (pronounced 'Larn') Park is one of those rare places that inspires you with its beauty and at the same time fills you with a feeling of well-being, making it the perfect spot for taking a break from the modern pace of life. From the heights of Laugharne Park, you can see across the wide, sparkling sweep of the River Taf estuary, over part of the magnificent Bay of Carmarthen and right the way to the North Devon coast, some 30 miles away. Below, stretches the green, shady glades of Milk Wood - made famous in the legendary works of one of Wales' most notable sons, Dylan Thomas. And all about you are wide open spaces, with a chorus of birdsong reassuring you that all's right with the world.

DIRECTIONS

Nearest Airport: Cardiff Airport

From the airport, take the M4 and A48 all the way to Carmarthen, then take the A40 towards St. Clears (approx. 9 miles), then take the A4066 from St. Clears to Laugharne (approx. 4.5 miles). Once in Laugharne, drive along the main street until you see a public house called The Browns Hotel. Take the first turn on your left just past the Browns Hotel –the property is 300 yards up the road!

GETTING AROUND

We recommend you rent a car in order to best explore the area.

Distances are small, but with the exception of links around the coast, public transport is somewhat infrequent. Wales has some fantastic train lines, particularly along the Cambrian coast and down the Conwy valley.
