

VACATIONING AT WHITBARROW VILLAGE

Conveniently located just 15 minutes drive from junction 40 of the M6 motorway, halfway between Penrith and Keswick, is the peaceful luxury resort of Whitbarrow Village. Its picturesque location in the foothills of Blencathra Fell (popularly known as 'Saddleback'), has helped make this family-run resort one of the Lake District's most popular resorts. A converted 18th century Cumbrian farm known as Whitbarrow Hall in 1986 has maintained much of its original unique character. The cobbled, flagged 'village' street, overlooked by the clock tower, runs between the converted natural stone farm buildings, with paths leading off through pretty archways to flower-decked courtyards, each with its own lawn. Over the years, the resort has grown to 45 apartments as more of the farm buildings, such as the old Coach House, the Piggery and the Dutch Barn, have been tastefully restored and converted. As soon as you arrive, you'll notice the warm, friendly atmosphere; yet the high standards of accommodation, facilities and service ensure you and your family have everything you need to make the most of your holiday.
